Friends, APL Announce Volunteers of the Year

The Friends of the Library have voted Pat McCall their Volunteer of the Year for 2014. Pat has taken a significant role in the library's fundraising efforts during the past year. Notably, Pat started the handmade mouse ornament project which brought in much-needed end-of-year funds during the holidays. Pat has also made regular contributions to other library fundraising efforts. Pat also now serves on the Board of Directors as Secretary, and chairs and participates on board committees.

The APL Staff announces a tie for library Volunteer of the Year between long-time Friends Marilyn Terry and Cindy Sotelo.

Marilyn has been a dedicated library supporter for many years, and has made significant contributions at Re-Reads and in the library. Marilyn helps with fundraising and both youth and adult programs, and does the important work of identifying the perfect donated books for special sales.

Cindy has been APL's Homebound Program Coordinator for over five years, selecting and delivering books to seniors and those who are otherwise unable to visit the library. Cindy is an important lifeline to these patrons, and we appreciate her generous efforts.

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month, and the staff honored volunteers with a potluck lunch during the April Friends meeting. Our Volunteers of the Year will be our guests at the Volunteer Big Bend Luncheon held by the Pilot Club on May 4. Thank you to all our loyal volunteers! We couldn't do it without you!

Last Chance to pre-order artist mouse ornaments from the Friends of the Library is May 15! Mice are $15 each and are handmade by the Friends of the Library. Available in Re-Reads.

Wildflowers at APL

APL's demonstration landscape is in full bloom! Volunteers keep the native plants thriving, and rainwater is doing the rest. Stop by and visit our gardens and view the donor brick display.

Fill-A-Bag Sale

Re-Reads is planning a big, Fill-A-Bag sale Friday and Saturday May 15-16. The sale will take place in the AEP Room of the library. Sale hours will be 2:00-6:00 Friday, and 10:00-3:00 Saturday. Each bag will be $2.00 for the general public. The price will be $1.00 a bag for current Friends of Alpine Public Library. Bring your own bag of any size, or use our recycled plastic shopping bags. Pick books for your summer reading that do not need to be returned to the library.

Patio Sale

Alpine Public Library is having a 'garage sale' on the covered patio, Saturday, May 2. Donations gratefully accepted Friday, May 1, during library hours (9:30-6:00.) Sale will begin Saturday morning at 8:30 and end when the library closes at 3:00. Take advantage of this event to donate items that do not fit your current needs. Perhaps while you are shopping the Patio Sale Saturday; you will find items that 'just suit you' and benefit Alpine Public Library. As with all APL fundraising events, proceeds go to the library.

Re-Reads

Re-Reads posts items of special interest on its Facebook page. This page is found by clicking on Re-Reads from the main www.alpinepubliclibrary.org Re-Reads is updating the inventory of items for sale. Be sure to check for the updated posting on the Re-Reads page. The regular price for hardback books has been reduced to $2.00. If you have available time, Re-Reads is seeking desk volunteers. Volunteer forms are available in the library.

Speakers Wanted

Fourth Friday of every month.

Call Jim Glendinning to fix a date.

Hump Day Lunch

We thank everyone for the public response to our Hump Day Lunches. People have an opportunity to relax over a leisurely meal while generating funds to benefit the Alpine Public Library. The Hump Day Lunch for May is Wednesday, May 6. We will have hot dogs (and all the trimmings,) chips, desserts, and drinks. We will be serving from 11:00-1:00.

Happy volunteers Margaret Matthews, Linda Bryant, and Kathy Donnell enjoy lunch with the APL staff during Volunteer Appreciation Week.
